

OER Collective Community of Practice

6/2024

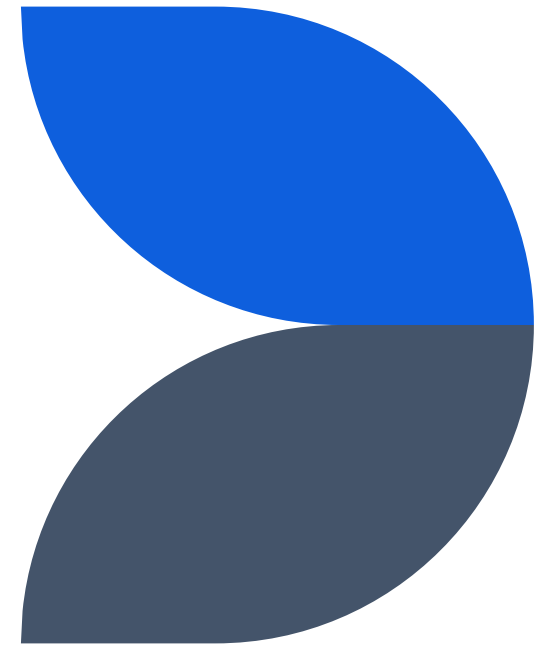

Wednesday 26 June 2024

The session is being recorded.

It will be available after the event along with the slides and links shared.

There will be time for questions at the end.

OER COLLECTIVE COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

No.
6

Can you describe your role and what a typical day or week looks like for you discussing on your OER?
What strategies have you found effective in raising awareness of OER among library staff, students, and faculty?
Can you share examples of successful OER adoption or integration? For example, excel spreadsheets, video, etc.
What software tools do you use to manage OER development? What are your favorite tools?
Can you describe any current or future OER projects you are working on?
What challenges have you encountered in developing OER in your field of OER?
7. How do you keep up to date with new developments and trends in OER in their teaching and learning?
8. In your opinion, what are the main benefits to faculty who are using OER in their teaching and learning?
9. What support or resources do you provide to faculty who are using OER in their teaching and learning?
10. How do you measure the impact of OER in your teaching and learning?
11. How do you collaborate with faculty who are using OER in their teaching and learning?
12. What are the most interesting or great things you have learned about OER in your teaching and learning?

Twelve Questions

26 JUNE 2024
11:00-12:00 AEST

Join us as we interview
several members

OVERVIEW

- Meet our guests
- We ask them twelve questions
- You ask questions (Slido #189 8902)

OPEN
EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES COLLECTIVE

Stephanie Davenport
Senior Librarian (Research and Academic Engagement)
University of Western Australia

Rebecca Fabry
Manager, Academic Services
Charles Sturt University

Philip Worthington
Subject Librarian
(Economics & Finance, Government, Information Management)
Te Herenga Waka -
Victoria University of Wellington

Jennifer Hurley
Lead, RMIT Open Publishing Team
RMIT University

2024

Question 1

Can you describe your role and what a typical day or week looks like for you (focusing on your OER work)?

Question 2

What strategies have you found effective in raising awareness about OER among library staff, students and faculty?

Question 3

Can you share examples of successful OER adoption or integration initiatives you've been involved in?

Question 4

What software tools do you use to manage OER development projects? For example, excel spreadsheets, Airtable, etc.

Question 5

Can you describe any current or future OER projects you are/will be working on?

Question 6

What challenges have you encountered in your role, and how have you overcome them?

Question 7

How do you keep up to date with new developments and resources in the field of OER?

Question 8

In your opinion, what are the main benefits and limitations of using OER compared to traditional educational resources?

Question 9

What support or resources do you provide to faculty who are new to using OER in their teaching?

Question 10

How do you measure the impact of OER initiatives on student learning outcomes and academic success?

Question 11

How do you collaborate with faculty and instructors to promote the use of OER in courses?

Question 12

Is there an institution or person in the OEP/OER field that you think is doing great things? Can be Australian or overseas.

Coming up

- 27 June – Advanced Pressbooks Publishing (3.30am)
- 28 June – EOI for OER Collective Project Officer role closes (9am AEST)
- 31 July – OER Collective Community of Practice No.7

Questions

Slido code #189 8902

Contacts

Rani McLennan or Katya Henry at oercollective@caul.edu.au

or

Speak to your institutional contact